HESTER CREEK ESTATE WINERY - Oliver, BC SUSTAINABLE Historic BC winery located on the Golden Mile Bench. Their main 76 acre block (of 115 total estate acres) was planted in 1968 by it's former owner, an Italian immigrant who suitcase in all of the clippings from Italy, including BC's only planting of Trebbiano. Today, Hester Creek is noted for producing wines of excellent value across the value and premium spectrums sourced in their entirety from the Oliver/Osoyoos appellation.

PICO MACCARIO - Piedmont SUSTAINABLE
Pico Maccario is a Barbera specialist located in the town of Mombaruzzo in the heart of Piedmont's Barbera d'Asti DOCG. Brothers Pico and Vitaliano created the Pico Maccario brand in 1997 following four generations of selling the family grapes to other producers. Pico Maccario's winemaking style is to respect the true varietal character of Barbera, delivering wines with focused, clean aromas, and balanced, pleasant acidity.

ERCOLE - Piedmont SUSTAINABLE
Brought to Revelry via our New York friend, "The Piedmont Guy". Ercole, whose English translation is Hercules, is only made possible by a generations-old cooperative of local growers in the Monferrato area. The place, Monferrato, ranks among the most historic grape-growing areas of Piedmont. The fruit from this overlooked area gives us Ercole, a family of wines offering great label design and remarkable value in a 1 litre format.

TENUTA SANTA MARIA DI GAETANO BERTANI - Veneto ORGANIC
Official documents from as early as the mid-1500s attest to the Bertani family heritage in the Valpolicella region. At the start of the last half of the 1800s, brothers Gaetano & Giovanni Battista Bertani set out to establish the first commercial bottler in Valpolicella. They introduced revolutionary vine growing techniques developed by agronomist Jules Guyot, techniques to which Gaetano Bertani had been exposed during his years of political exile in France for his active role in the Italian Unification Movement against the Austrian Empire. Today, Gaetano Bertani, great-grandson of founding brother Gaetano, and his sons, Giovanni and Guglielmo, maintain the family tradition and philosophy. Now in its sixth generation, the Bertani enterprise continues in the tradition of one of the oldest winemaking families in Italy.

CANTINA GORGO - Veneto ORGANIC Roberto Bricolo started Gorgo back in 1973 with 22 hectares. Today it stretches over 60 hectares, almost all part of the "Bianco di Custoza" and "Bardolino" production areas. He runs the estate with the help of his daughter Roberta. The wines are fresh and direct, with a winning minerality, and have been widely recognized by Gambero Rosso and the rest of the Italian wine press. Gorgo sits on glacial moraine just south east of Lake Garda, near the village of Custoza. The light textured soil of this area is typically whitish, and consists of rock fragments, pebbles, humus and silt rich in calcium carbonate concentration at high pH. The vineyards are managed using traditional local methods including the use of organic fertilizers, and plowing of the vineyards. Harvest, which is almost entirely by hand, can stretch over 45 days to achieve full maturity.

CANTINA NALS MARGREID - Alto-Adige SUSTAINABLE This exciting co-operative cellar came out of the union, in 1985, between two well-established operations, Cantine Nalles, founded in 1932, and Magre-Niclara, founded in 1954. The result is a group of 140 members who cultivate a total of 150 hectares. Nals Margreid is still undergoing impressive changes with energy radiating from the new cellar designed by architect Markus Scherer. Every year, the winery style is acquiring better definition and territorial character, thanks to the skill and painstaking efforts of cellar master Harald Schraffl.

TERRALSOLE - Tuscany ORGANIC Swiss-born artist Mario Bollag was the first non-Italian to make wine in Montalcino with his first project Il Palazzone. Upon the sale of Il Palazzone to the former head of Time Warner, Bollag purchased a small hilltop from a local shepherd that he transformed into Terralsole "land of the sun". Trained by the godfather of Brunello, Franco Biondi-Santi, Mario produces exquisite wines in a very traditional style at an exceptional price.

BINDI-SERGARDI - Tuscany
SUSTAINABLE / TRANSITIONAL ORGANIC

The Bindi Sergardi family heritage is one closely tied with the history of the Chianti and Chianti Classico region. For twenty-three generations—since 1349—the family has been deeply involved in the politics, economics, and culture of Siena. From being leaders of the Siena government in the 15th Century to one of the founding members of the Chianti Classico Consorzio in 1924, the Bindi Sergardi family lives and breathes the history of the region. The current manager, Alessandra Casini Bindi Sergardi joined the company in 2005 following the 700 years-old tradition of her family in wine making. Inspired by her father Nicolo and following the courageous example of her grandmother Chiara and great grand mother Elisabetta, she gave new light to the family business. They make wine from their three estates: Tenuta Mocenni, Tenuta I Colli, and Tenuta Marcianella. Through their work in the vineyards and cellar they are true Sangiovese specialists.

TENUTA CASENUOVE - Tuscany
ORGANIC

Tenuta Casenuove covers some 100 hectares at the heart of Chianti, not far south of Florence, Tuscany. Commercialisation not being the primary concern, the domain has just 28 hectares of vines planted on the best parcels, the rest being left wild. The famous 'galestro', a mix of schist and clay, contributes to the elegance and finesse of the property's production. Of course there is plenty of Sangiovese planted here (10.5 hectares), though merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon are also perfectly adapted to the Tuscan climate. Acquired in 2014 by Philippe Austruy, owner of a cru bourgeois in the Haut-Medoc and a "quinta" in the Douro valley, Tenuta Casenuove was an instant favourite with its subtle wines and immense landscape. The domain produces wine under the Chianti Classico Riserva appellation as well as IGT Tuscany in order to create the blends of their choice.

IL PALAZZO - Tuscany SUSTAINABLE For centuries Il Palazzo estate has been a stopping point for travelers because of its location along the ancient Via Ariminensis or Salt Road which connected Rome to Rimini. Today it boasts a spectacular agriturismo lovingly restored by the Banelli family in the 1970s along with olive groves and vineyards. This inaugural, export release of the wines, produced from the 105 acre estate just outside of the Classico zone, represent tremendous quality and value. Il Palazzo shares the same winemaker with Tenuta Setti Ponti.

TENUTA DI CAPEZZANA - Tuscany ORGANIC Historic Tuscan producer whose estate dates to 804 AD. Owned by the Medici family in the 1700s, it was the first demarcated region with its own grape growing rules, establishing the first de facto DOCG in Italy. The 53 km wall separating the Medici's hunting grounds (now known as Carmignano) was called the "Barco Reale". The Capezzana estate was purchased from the Rothschild family in the 1920s by the Bonacossi family who were instrumental in the formation of Carmignano as a formal DOCG. Today Capezzana produces 80% of the entire appellation.

VIGNAMATO - San Paolo di Jesi, Marche ORGANIC In the late 1940's, Umberto Ceci bought a small plot of land in the San Paolo di Jesi based hamlet of Battinebbia – An area renowned for the quality of its Verdicchio grapes. In the early 1950s, the land was passed down to son to Amato and his wife Maria, keen growers who began selling the family's wines to village locals from the farm building on the estate. In time the winery began to achieve much acclaim across the region, and the third generation of the Ceci family was drawn into the project – Maurizio and his wife Serenella formally established the estate and named it Vignamato, and began exporting to countries outside of Italy. The youngest generation of Ceci's, brothers and sisters Alessandra, Andrea, and Francesco, now run the daily operations here, and they are taking things to even higher levels. Their top white wine "Ambrosia" has been named Tre Bicchieri the past three vintages by Gambero Rosso.

SANDY WINES - Marche ORGANIC "Sandy GIOVESE" is the alter-ego of our New York friend Amy Ezrin, a seasoned alumna of Skurnik Wines. Amy spent 8 years living in Italy and training as an opera singer but as she put it "I was an OK singer but I was really good at speaking Italian and tasting wine, so I became a wine importer." Amy works with a family owned winery in the Marche to produce wines of incredible value that are both high in quality and gentle on the planet.

D'ANGELO - Basilicata ORGANIC D'Angelo is a historical family estate in the heart of the major appellation of Italy's deep Southern region of Basilicata. Producing wine on the slopes of mount Vulture, an acidic Volcano (now extinct) since the 1930's and concentrating on the 'Aglianico' varietal, Southern Italy's king of red grapes. The winery concentrates on various single-vineyard expressions of the Aglianico grape and possesses some of the oldest and most important CRU vineyards on the volcano, benefitting from impeccable exposure and high elevation, as well as mineral rich volcanic soils. The secret to D'Angelo's complexity and character is their higher elevation, which allows for heavy diurnal temperature variations whilst maintaining a strong sun typical of Southern Italy. This concentrates aromas and boosts the intensity of the wines, as well as allowing for a strong acidic backbone, whilst allowing for the ripeness to proceed undisturbed.

CANTINE FINA - Sicily ORGANIC For many years Bruno Fina was the director of the viticultural research institute on Sicily. After working for more than 20 years with one of the most influential enology consultants in Italy, Giacomo Tachis ("Godfather of the Super Tuscans" and collaborator on Tignanello, Sassacaia, and Solaia), Bruno left nothing to chance when researching the best terroir and microclimates in Sicily to plant his vineyards. Sandy and salty soils were selected for the Grillo and Zibibbo vines, Viognier, Sauvignon Blanc and Traminer vines planted on the hills and mountains in the area of Trapani and the Madonie vines were planted with north exposure in order to hide from the hot and strong Sicilian sun.

JOSEPH MELLOTT - Loire SUSTAINABLE / ORGANIC The Mellot dynasty of the Joseph Mellot Estate in Loire was founded in Sancerre almost five centuries ago by Pierre-Etienne Mellot and, since then, the family has always been involved in winemaking. In fact, in 1698, César Mellot, was entrusted with the weighty task of advising King Louis XIV on his choice of wines. Today, Joseph Mellot is the only estate that owns vineyards in all of the appellations of the region.

MAISON ALBERT BICHOT- Burgundy SUSTAINABLE / ORGANIC Since 1350, the Bichot family has made Burgundy its home. In 1831, Bernard Bichot founded a merchant house bearing his name in Monthelie, a couple of kilometres south of Beaune. At the end of the 19th century, his grand-son Albert Bichot definitively installed its headquarters in Beaune. The family craft has been passed from father to son since then. Alberic Bichot has been managing the company since 1996 and represents the 6th generation doing so. To continue to grow and create the best wine and express the best of the terroir, Albert Bichot has acquired vineyards in the most highly regarded growing areas. Domaines Bichot now owns four estates set in the heart of the four great viticultural regions that make up Burgundy: Chablis, Cote de Nuits, Cote de Beaune and Cote Chalonnaise. Each estate consists of vineyards cultivated with sustainable practices.

MAISON MARCHAND-TAWSE - Burgundy ORGANIC / BIODYNAMIC Canadian Burgundy project uniting Moray Tawse of Ontario's eponymous Tawse Winery with Burgundian winemaking superstar Pascal Marchand, originally from Montreal. In 2012 Tawse purchased the historic Domaine Maume in Gevrey-Chambertin which owns four grand cru parcels. In tandem with Marchand's négociant business they produce over 80 separate bottlings. This duo is at the forefront of a new wave of vigneron, embracing organic and biodynamic farming practices while rejecting dogma in the vineyard or cellar. Straddling the line between tradition and innovation, they are one of the most exciting new projects out of Burgundy in recent years.

MAISON JOSEPH BURRIER - Macon / Beaujolais SUSTAINABLE The Burriers have been a prominent winegrowing family in southern Burgundy since the 15th Century and have owned Château de Beauregard in Pouilly-Fuissé for six generations. Frédéric-Marc Burrier is the family member in charge of the château, and runs the négociant business, Maison Joseph Burrier, which was named for his grandfather. In 2015, Maison Joseph Burrier purchased a stake in Domaine de la Rochette in nearby Bussières; a location that Frédéric-Marc identified as the ideal location for high quality, terroir-driven Mâcon white wine. As the president of the local winegrower's association, Frédéric has been one of the leading advocates for classifying the Pouilly-Fuissé region's best climats as premier crus.

DOMAINE PHILIPPE & VINCENT JABOULET - Tain l'Hermitage ORGANIC Philippe Jaboulet and his son, Vincent, carry on long-established family winemaking traditions at Domaine Philippe & Vincent Jaboulet in Crozes-Hermitage. Located in the northern Rhône Valley about one mile south of Tain l'Hermitage, the domaine was founded in 2006 following the sale of Maison Paul Jaboulet Aîné, where Philippe managed the family's vineyards. After the sale, Philippe and Vincent retained about 32 acres of the family's vineyards, including most notably a parcel of the original Thalabert vineyard, which is situated in the Crozes-Hermitage appellation. The parcel from the Thalabert vineyard that belonged to Paul Jaboulet Aîné was renamed Nouvelère, commemorating the 'new era'. The domaine's Nouvelère wine is produced from the vineyard's oldest vines, up to 80 years old. In Hermitage, the Syrah wines are sourced from 30-year-old vines in the Les Dionnières lieu-dit.

DOMAINE DE LA SOLITUDE - Rhone ORGANIC / BIODYNAMIC Chateauneuf-du-Pape translates to "new house of the Pope" and refers to the relocation of the papal court to Avignon in the 14th century. Many Italian nobles moved to the area as well, and, thus the Lancon family members (owners of Domaine de la Solitude) are direct descendants of the Barberini family of Rome, still prominent family in Italy to this day - among their ancestors number Pope Urban VIII and two Cardinals. Since the Renaissance, through the French Revolution and into modern times, the family has played a part in the narrative that has been written about Chateauneuf-du-Pape. The Estate is a single plot of 100 acres, planted to 86 acres of red grapes and 14.8 acres of white grapes, with vines averaging 50 years of age. The viticulture is organic and moving towards biodynamic certification while the viniculture is as non-interventionist as possible under the watchful eye of winemaker Florent Lancon. Domaine de la Solitude produces a very elegant style, regarded as the most "Burgundian" of the major Chateauneuf du Pape houses.

CHATEAU CABRIERES - Chateauneuf-du-Pape ORGANIC The Arnaud family has owned the Château Cabrières property for three generations. The name 'Cabrières' comes from the Latin name Capraria, designating a place where goats are raised. The property dates back many centuries, indicated by a bread oven door that was discovered and preserved - the stone cut recalls the technique used in the 14th and 15th centuries. This proves the historic nature of the Chateau and its vine stock, both of which benefit from the flinty nature of the local soil, where vines have been planted since 1344.

QUINTA DO VALLADO - Douro ORGANIC Quinta do Vallado estate has been family-owned since 1716 originally owned by the legendary Doña Antonia Adelaide Ferreira. Today the winery is owned by João Ferreria Alvares Ribeiro, Francisco Ferreira and Francisco Olazabal. It is one of the oldest and most famous "Quintas" in the Douro region. The old vines, which make up almost 40% of the vineyards are at least 80 years old. The family sold the Ferreira port house 20 years ago in order to focus on the exquisite table wines that today compose the Vallado portfolio.

VALE DOS SANTOS - Vinho Verde SUSTAINABLE The dos Santos project started in 2010 when dos Santos family decided to revitalize and rebuild the old family Estate in the Region of Vila Meã, Amarante, Portugal, deep in the Terroir of the Vinho Verde. Wine, a long-time passion of the family, was the solution for the terroir that was abandoned for over 40 years. Conditions were laid for the development of a serious, long-term, project that aimed at the production of exceptional quality wines in the Amarante sub-region of the larger Vinhos Verdes DOC region. Simultaneously, dos Santos extended the project to wine-tourism, with the clear goal to enhance the material and immaterial heritage of the region surrounding the vineyards. Paramount is the revitalization of the old Church of de Real, a national monument and part of the Portuguese Romanesque Route.

GOMEZ CRUZADO - Rioja SUSTAINABLE
The Gómez Cruzado winery dates back to 1886 when Angel Gómez de Arteche started to produce and bottle his own wine in Haro, at the very heart of Rioja Alta. This was in the day when the wine trade between Rioja and France passed along the Tudela-Bilbao line, and the key Rioja wineries were located around the station of Haro. The winery sits just 100m from the station to this day. Subsequently bought by Angel and Jesus Gomez Cruzado in 1916, and more recently by the Baños family, David González (winemaker) and Juan Antonio Leza (viticulturalist) now head up the winemaking team. They have been working with Gomez Cruzado for over 10 years, crafting wines from vineyards of old bush vines in the most elevated areas of Rioja Alta and Alavesa. They source from almost a hundred different plots across 3 distinct regions: Alto Najerilla, Bajo Najerilla and Sierra Cantabria. Sierra Cantabria (Rioja Alta and Alavesa).

Considered by none other than Andre Tchelistcheff, upon his arrival in Napa in 1938 to be one of the 4 best wineries in Napa. The quality of the grapes was such that Dr Harold Olmo, the pioneering viticulturalist from UC-Davis used specific clones from their vineyard to help establish the UC-Davis grapevine nursery with the Larkmead clones being the source for over 50% of all California grapevine plantings between 1958-1978.

NEW FRONTIER WINE COMPANY - Napa Valley, California ORGANIC / BIODYNAMIC New Frontier Wine Company is a culmination of innovators and artisans from around the globe, with the heritage of some of Napa's finest terroirs. Each winemaker is a mystifying creative force – Michel Rolland, Philippe Melka, Maayan Koschitzky, Matt Sands, Alberto Antonini, Joe Shebl, and Juan Pablo Murgia. Each vineyard is legendary – Beckstoffer To Kalon, Beckstoffer Dr. Crane, Beckstoffer Las Piedras, Beckstoffer Georges III, Ritchie, Grieve, Starscape, Charles Heintz, Renwood Estate Ranch, and Lowrey to name a few. Alejandro Bulgheroni, an Argentinian-Italian businessman, farmer, vintner, and entrepreneur adds another constellation to the portfolio of focused and emblematic properties. It is only through his impassioned pursuit and vision of terroir that New Frontier is able to present a new level of distinction to a wine market that values authenticity above all.

RHYS VINEYARDS - Santa Cruz, California
ORGANIC / BIODYNAMIC

Recommended to us by none other than Larry Stone, Rhys Vineyards was founded in 2004 by Kevin Harvey, a tech entrepreneur and passionate wine collector who frequented the vineyards of Burgundy and became close friends with a number of families behind the top domaines of the Cotes d'Or. When he started dabbling with the idea of planting his own Pinot Noir vines, Harvey was privileged to have access to these friends' properties – researching the terroir, soil depth, structure, chemistry, hydrology, climate, among other attributes. Harvey then utilized this information to seek out what he thought were the best sites in California, looking for analogies in the vital characteristics that he believed drove the quality of the wine. His research led him to his own backyard – the rugged, rocky terroir of the Santa Cruz Mountains. Today, Rhys is a benchmark producer of great Pinot Noir, Chardonnay and Syrah with seven estate vineyards; six in the Santa Cruz Mountains and one in Anderson Valley, each capable of producing uniquely compelling, distinctive, soil-driven wine.

BETHEL HEIGHTS VINEYARD - Eola-Amity Hills, Oregon LIVE / ORGANIC Founded in 1977 by twin brothers Ted and Terry Casteel and their wives Pat Dudley and Marilyn Webb. The Casteels were pioneers in the Eola-Amity Hills AVA planting one of the very first vineyards. The winery now supports multiple generations with winemaking duties handled by Ben Casteel and the organic viticulture by his cousin Mimi Casteel. Producing exclusively from their own 75 acre estate, Bethel Heights, along with Ponzi, were leaders in helping to establish LIVE – a sustainable certification standard that takes into account vineyard and winery practices as well their impact on the surrounding habitat.

MAISON NOIR - Oregon SUSTAINABLE / ORGANIC Maison Noir Wines was founded in 2007 by winemaker/sommelier/designer André Hueston Mack, a Per Se and French Laundry alumni, incorporating his trademark style to create a hip, street culture brand reminiscent of 90s skateboarding apparel. The wines are unique and distinctive garage wines (micro-négociant) which source the best fruit possible from a diverse array of name Oregon vineyards. The wines reflect the individuality of their respective sites and terroirs with uncommon flair and style.

CHILE

GARAGE WINE CO. - Maule Valley ORGANIC Garage Wine Co. is the brain child of Ontario native Derek Mossman and his Chilean wife Pilar Miranda. Started, literally, in their Garage, it has grown to be a unique and dynamic project focussed on a series of individual old-vine, dry-farmed vineyards located in the Maule & Itata Valleys, south of Santiago. These small parcels are either farmed by them or the local subsistence farmers who continue to hand tend the vineyards traditionally. All lots are vinified separately with very low intervention. When Derek speaks of "provenance" he is referring beyond the terroir to the farming practices & traditions that have shaped the identity of these vineyards and the wines.

OTRONIA - Patagonia Extrema ORGANIC Grupo Avinea's cool climate chardonnay and pinot noir project located at the furthest edge of Patagonia. It is the southernmost vineyard in the world, 100 miles south of New Zealand's Otago region. The winemaking is handled by Juan Pablo Murgía in consultation with Alberto Antonini. The climate is so extreme that the vines are half the size of those that grow in the Valle de Uco, but flourishing in the otherwise rich soils. Unsurprisingly, for wines grown in such unique conditions, they are unusual expressions of each grape variety. The Chardonnay has a blend of explosive acidity and pungent fruits sometimes seen in New Zealand while the Pinots have a delicious combination of savoury and sweet fruits with tremendous delicacy.

AUSTRALIA

COULTER WINES - Adelaide Hills ORGANIC Chris Coulter is the epitome of Australia's modern winemaking renaissance. After gaining a winemaking degree he worked for many years for some of the high volume wine giants of the Australian industry, building technical mastery along the way but always harbouring the desire to make more honest wines. A chance meeting with a mate, who despite having limited access to resources was punching out stunning small batch wine, set the wheels in motion. James Halliday explains, "Coulter Wines was born in the '15 vintage as a side project, making wines from another universe – nothing other than minimal SO2 is added, movements are by gravity and the wine is unfiltered where practicable." Now a 'five star' Halliday-rated winery after just a handful of vintages, Coulter produces minimal intervention, small batch wines that focus on purity and freshness. To say he takes things seriously would be an understatement. Coulter purchases grapes from a small number of meticulous, trusted cool-site growers, mostly in the Adelaide Hills, with all fruit handpicked and crushed on the same day.

ELEPHANT GIN - Hamburg SUSTAINABLE

A trip to South Africa help lead to the creation of German-made Elephant Gin. Inspired by the unique botanicals that they found on their trip, Elephant Gin's creators wanted to create a premium gin that combine these ingredients with more traditional gin botanicals. 14 total botanicals, including juniper, buchu, baobab, lion's tail, devil's claw, african wormwood, apple, ginger, mountain pine, orange peel and pimento, are maccerated together a full day in the base spirit before being distilled. For every purchase of Elephant Gin, 15% of the profits are donated to wildlife conservation in Africa.
